BOY SCOUTS GET PRIZES FOR BRAVERY IN CAMP

Awards Will Be Made To-Morrow Night, After Special Exercises of Troop No. 11.

SUPERVISORS MEET MONDAY

Expected Citizens Will Appear to Protest Against Automobile Purchase for Division School Superintendent—Special Church Services.

Prizes for bravery and attention to duty in camp this year will be awarded after special exercises at the meeting of Troop No. 11, Boy Scouts of America, to-morrow night. A large number of boys attended "Camp Santee," and it was difficult for the judges to decide which scouts deserved to be honored.

Scoutmaster Odie B. Hinnant announced yesterday that the winner of the pennant for the best scoutcraft work was Linwood Cersley. This prize was captured last year by Daniel Ingram. Members of "Lion Patrol" will receive emblems for the best team work in the camp. They are Linwood Cersley, P. L. Leonard Phillips, A. P. L. Aubrey Nunnally, Raymond Deck, William Smith, Ralph Carroll, Sims Ballew and Percy Baldwin.

Mr. Hinnant, who organized the troop, and has been the scoutmaster since, will formally tender his resignation at the meeting. He will leave on the following Monday for Wilmington, N. C., to fill a position in the Young Men's Christian Association. He will be succeeded by H. A. Rist, the assistant scoutmaster.

Officers of the troop include some of the most prominent men on the Southside. They are Daniel Ingram, president; Seldon Filpen, vice-president; Raymond Deck, secretary; Melvin Jones, treasurer; troop committee, Judge Ernest H. Wells, H. C. Beattie, Dr. S. J. Baker.

Supervisors to Meet.

The Chesterfield County Board of Supervisors will hold its regular monthly meeting to-morrow at Chesterfield Courthouse. It is expected that citizens of the county will appear before the board in regard to the buying of an automobile for P. M. Tyler, division superintendent of schools. There has been much unfavorable comment on the matter on account of the raising of the school levy last May to make improvements in the schools.

To-Day in Southside Churches.

Regular services will be conducted by Rev. W. A. Cooper, the pastor, this morning in Central Methodist Church, and at 8 o'clock to-night. Sunday school will begin at 9:15 o'clock this morning.

Rev. John D. Scott will preach this morning at 11 o'clock in Meade Memorial Episcopal Church.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. M. White, W. C. Scott will occupy the pulpit this morning in Decatur Street Methodist Church. Thomas C. Dicks, secretary of the Virginia Sunday School Association, will preach at 8 o'clock to-night.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralley P. Shifflett and three children left yesterday for Wavertown, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Shifflett.

Miss Mattie Ellington is visiting relatives and friends in North Carolina.

Mrs. Charles T. Morris and family are visiting in Prince George County. Miss Ethel Bookman is visiting her brother, Ernest Bookman, of Philadelphia. Before returning she will spend some time with relatives in Lancaster, Pa.

Miss Minerva Weeks has returned to her home in Petersburg following a visit to Mrs. J. C. Carter.

Mrs. R. C. Broadus and Miss Carrie Archer have returned from Mount Elliott Springs.

Miss Marie Du Val is the guest of Miss Myrtle Brown, of Danville, Va.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Kinchelee are visiting in Buckingham County.

Miss Temple Carter is a guest at a house party given by Mrs. Coghill.

Mrs. Willis C. Pulliam and children left yesterday for Afton, Va., where they will spend some time.

Mrs. T. E. Burton and sons are visiting friends in Bedford City.

Misses Pattle and Annie Lacy will leave to-day for Bluefield, to visit their nephew, Robert Lacy, and later will visit R. A. Lacy, of Johnson City, Tenn.

Mrs. B. H. Guy, of "Interview," is visiting her sisters, Mrs. McAdoo and Mrs. Charles Lee, of Greensboro, N. C.

PREPARING FOR FIGHT ON NINTH BATTLEGROUND

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BRISTOL, Va., August 22.—Representative C. B. Slomp, Republican nominee for re-election to Congress from the Ninth Virginia District, has deferred the time for opening his campaign headquarters from August to September. It is now expected that his campaign committee will open headquarters in Bristol early in September, and from that time forward Mr. Slomp will conduct a campaign that is calculated to arouse enthusiasm and determination among his supporters in every county in the district.

It. Tate Irvine, the Democratic nominee, is very active with his plans for a thorough campaign, and his headquarters at Big Stone Gap are to be a scene of great activity throughout the remainder of the campaign.

The Progressives are also shaping matters for the formal opening of their campaign. Their candidate, J. L. Rose, announces a public meeting to be held in Abingdon on Tuesday, August 25, at which time Mr. Rose, Captain Henry Taylor, John H. Catron and Walter Graham are expected to meet. Rose laughs at the rumor that Mr. Slomp is to receive the endorsement of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, head of the Moose. He declares that if Roosevelt extends endorsement to Slomp in preference to the Progressive candidate, he (Rose) will withdraw from the race.

COMMUNITY PICNIC TO BE HELD AT INGLESIDE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WAVERTOWN, Va., August 22.—The farmers of Sussex will hold a community picnic and good roads and farmers' rally at Ingleside, about ten miles west of Waverly, on Saturday, August 29, on the Washington-Richmond-Norfolk highway, and the Tidewater Automobile Association will conduct a "sociality run" from Norfolk to Ingleside on that day. The association probably will bring fifty or more automobiles from Norfolk, Portsmouth, Suffolk and intermediate points.

Addresses on good roads and better farming will be made by Governor Henry C. Stuart, Judge George C. Cassell, of Radford, and others. A bountiful dinner will be served, which will be free to all.

If the weather conditions are favorable, several thousand people from Sussex and adjoining counties are expected to be present.
